Hello all,

Please find attached the current fact sheets for both myeloid leukemia and nasopharyngeal cancer (we made some minor edits to the ML fact sheet). The citations should all be HERO-linked.

Please let us know if you have further suggestions, requests, feedback, etc.

Thanks,

Great.

You can put them where you think they would help.

There was an attachment (resending) in which I made those changes in places I thought they might fit.

Would these suggested changes be on the primary ("overall") conclusions?

I feel that these details are more appropriate within the descriptions of the specific lines of evidence.

Also, it is not only the stronger studies that are finding the associations (see Tom's prior email), so the wording probably will need a bit of refinement, wherever it lands.

I do think we could add a sentence as to which were the highest quality studies to the legend for the figure.

I reread carefully given Kris's comment and Tom's, I am wondering if there is a short phrase that could capture the essence of Tom's quote.

We are working on a parallel draft for nasal cancers, and hope to send that to you tomorrow (morning).

Hi Tina,

I wanted to check in for feedback before I went too far down the road of developing this "table", and before we went through our NCEA-W refinements. Attached is the beginning of a draft for leukemia focusing on the type of details we might include on the epidemiologic studies. I would summarize the human mechanistic studies as more of a list, and the animal data would be described very briefly.

Can we send a bunch of forest plots? Kidding. For our conclusions it probably wouldn't be too hard (it will take time and will likely be more studies than he might be expecting, but doable). For other agencies, ... ugh.

I will circle with David and Santhini sometime this afternoon (Barbara is out of town) and get back to you with a plan.
